DISTRIBUTION OF SCHOLARSHIP MONEY

1. Scholarship recipients may collect one scholarship payment per each Spring, Summer & Fall semester(s). For the first payment, recipients must provide a statement of tuition & fees or proof of enrollment for the college they are attending to the Fair Office before payment will be sent to the college. For all payments thereafter, recipients must maintain a 2.5 GPA and provide the Fair Office with a copy of their transcript, along with statement of tuition & fees or proof of enrollment before payment is issued to college.
2. All payments will be made directly to the college.
3. Scholarships will be paid out over a four-year period. A minimum of $500.00 or a maximum of $875.00 will be issued per semester. Scholarship payout will be determined by the amount of scholarship awarded. Recipients will receive a letter with detailed information on their payout amounts.
4. Tuition statements will remain in the fair office for each recipient until all scholarship funds are exhausted or the four-year limitation has passed.
5. Scholarship money can be used to pay for books, tuition, and fees (including university approved housing).
6. All unused funds will revert to the scholarship fund if not used within the four-year period following the scholarship award unless other arrangements have been approved by the board prior to the four-year limitation.
